OPA PLAN MAY CAUSE RISE IN SHOE PRICES

Government In Move To Suspend Manufacturing Controls

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON, April 25—With OPA approval, the Civilian Production Administration pushed plans today to suspend a manufacturing control which helped hold shoe prices down during the war.

And OPA laid some plans of its own to boost prices on low-cost shoes in an effort to make more of them available.

Meanwhile there were these other developments touching consumer needs and pocketbooks:

1. OPA rushed a survey to determine whether its regulations will jeopardize shipment of men's suits to stores after May 1.

2. Dealers met with OPA to discuss the possibility of a tire price increase.

42 Production Rate
OPA's shoe production has required manufacturers to turn out the same proportion of low-priced footwear they did during 1942.

OPA had planned to wipe the shoe order off the books. OPA objected and the agencies compromised on a plan to suspend it. This would permit re-instatement of the order should shoe prices get out of hand.

A CPA official who withheld use of his name said the order was not needed any more because shoe production had climbed so much. He estimated present output at about 42,000,000 pairs monthly, or close to 10,000,000 pairs more than in any previous month.

OPA believes that with production running at that rate, manufacturers will turn out plenty of low-cost shoes voluntarily.

But despite OPA and its agreement to go along, OPA is finding it necessary to increase inexpensive shoe prices to obtain more production.

An OPA official estimated the price increase may be about 10 per cent. The plan is to apply it only to models which were made in 1942 and which probably will sell at $5 or less.

As for men's suits, OPA began its study yesterday after a clothing industry spokesman had asserted suit deliveries to retail stores would have to stop May 1 unless the maximum average price regulation were amended.

Balance Production
This regulation prohibits shipments of high-priced suits unless quarterly output of these is balanced with a supply of inexpensive suits. Manufacturers are given an extra 30 days to May 1 in this case to balance production.

Some manufacturers contend they can't make the grade because OPA revised price ceilings on March 11 and didn't alter production restrictions accordingly.

OPA takes the position this has no bearing on the case because the price increase did not become effective on an industry-wide basis until April 15—two weeks after the end of the quarter for which producers now are accountable.

But the agency is checking manufacturers' costs and production records, and expects, officials said, that the average price order will have to be liberalized because of the shortage of low-cost fabric.

4 ESCAPE FROM JAIL AT WARREN

WARREN, April 25—Four prisoners who escaped from the Trumbull county jail by following a group of church people from the cell block were sought today throughout east central Ohio.

The sheriff's office identified the jail breakers as Alex Lestewicz, 19, of Youngstown; Clarence F. Russell, 17, of Youngstown; Frank T. Soda, 26, of Warren, and William A. Daumer, 23, of Niles.

Turnkey Jack Cronin said he had opened one of the double doors leading from the cell block to allow a group of church people, who had conducted regular Wednesday night services in the jail, to leave.

He thought he locked the first door before opening the second, but he added, Daumer placed something against the lock of the one door to prevent it being fastened. When he opened the outer door, Cronin said, the four prisoners fled.

The sheriff's office said Lestewicz had served part of a 15-month sentence in Jackson, Mich., prison, and had been held as a parole violator, following a Goldie road stickup near Youngstown.

Russell had been referred from the probate court to common pleas court in connection with two hold-ups in Girard, the sheriff's office said.

Soda was held on a breaking and entering charge, and Daumer was held for the grand jury under charges of breaking and entering and shooting with intent to wound or kill Walter Rathburn of Mineral Ridge.

Cigaret Price Depends On How You Buy Them

Retail cigarette prices are up today—except on single-pack over-the-counter sales.

The price hike is a half cent a pack on multiple-pack sales, five cents on a carton of 10, and one cent a pack on vending machine sales.

The reason for the higher prices is an increase of almost 50 percent in tobacco costs since the start of the war, OPA said in announcing the new schedule.

Manufacturers were given a price boost of 25 cents a thousand cigarettes.

ANOTHER CUT IN FLOUR SEEN

Supplies May Be Reduced Further To Aid Hungry Abroad

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 25—Americans may have to take a still sharper cut in flour supplies than the 25 per cent reduction ordered to make more bread available for hunger sufferers abroad.

This possibility arose today as the government pressed a wheat buying program which has the effect of closing the market to other buyers, including millers and food processors. Grain thus obtained will be used to help feed famine areas.

The government is in a position to dominate the wheat market because it has been authorized to pay farmers a 30-cent-a-bushel bonus over current market prices which are at ceiling prices. Other buyers cannot meet the government offer without violating OPA price ceilings.

Two Weeks' Supplies
As a result, millers are limited to supplies of wheat they have on hand. Some have reported they have enough to last them less than two weeks. By May 1, all mills reduce their supplies to 21 days' requirements, if they have more than that amount. Stocks above the 21-day supply must be sold to the government.

Just what mills will do for wheat after their 21-day supply runs out is the big question being asked by the industry.

Unless the millers can get supplies from the government, they will be forced to shut down.

Although officials have not said so, the government no doubt will find it necessary to resell some wheat to millers to enable them to operate after their current stocks run out and until new crop wheat becomes available in July.

But with the government itself unable to buy sufficient wheat to meet its urgent export promises, there is serious thought it would be able to release enough grain to millers to enable them to supply Americans with flour at even the reduced distribution level.

The 30-cent bonus offer expires May 25, and officials expect farmers to take full advantage of it.

Cancer Drive Funds At Theater Amount To $386

Donations by Salem movie patrons to the American Cancer society drive totaled $386.32. State Theater Manager N. I. Walken announced today after tabulating collections made Sunday through Wednesday.

The collections will be turned over to the Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is in charge of the cancer drive.

The Cancer society, which hopes to collect $12,000,000 this year, will retain 40 per cent of all donations for use toward a vast coordinated program of research. The remaining 60 per cent will be used within the respective states for preventative education against the disease.

The Jr. C. of C. has placed coin boxes around town for fund donations.

Driving Rights Revoked

NATION FACES TIME MIX-UP ONCE AGAIN

Daylight Time Legal In 24 States Sunday, Survey Shows

To use a Shakespearean phrase, "the time is out of joint"—or will be, come 2 a. m. next Sunday.

For at that "witching hour" timepieces in six states and many points in 18 others will be pushed forward one hour to start postwar Daylight Saving time. The city of Salem is included.

But 24 other states and the District of Columbia, in a different frame of mind, will remain on Standard time.

Daylight Saving time was replaced by war time during the war, when clocks throughout the nation were set one hour ahead of Standard time. That time system ended last September after three years and eight months.

The states which will have Daylight saving time on a state-wide basis are: New Jersey, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Vermont, and Connecticut.

24 On Community Rule
Those states which will allow communities to make their own decision on the subject are: West Virginia, Illinois, Minnesota, Florida, Michigan, South Carolina, Kentucky, Missouri, New Mexico, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Ohio, Louisiana, New York, Delaware, Oregon, Maine and Maryland.

Radio networks, airlines and railroads, which must figure time on a nation-wide basis in planning schedules, have arranged to cope with the differences.

The networks said they would try to record and rebroadcast programs where a change would affect regular program times.

The Pennsylvania railroad and the New York Central railroad said they would operate on Standard time.

TWA, United and American airlines will rearrange their flight schedules.

Two Are Injured In Auto Mishaps

Two persons were injured in two traffic accidents yesterday, state highway patrolmen said.

Willford C. Mellott, 21, of R. D. 1, Salem, suffered lacerations of the face and body bruises at 8:15 p. m. yesterday when his car swerved off Route 62, a mile north of Salem, and spun around several times. He told patrolmen he lost control of the vehicle on a curve. He was treated by a physician for minor injuries.

Robert J. Slagle, 21, of East Liverpool, is in East Liverpool City jail today charged with driving while intoxicated as a result of an accident on Route 30, two miles south of Lisbon, at 5:20 p. m. yesterday.

Walter J. Tychonievich, 20, of East Liverpool, suffered a slight concussion in the accident and was brought to Salem City hospital. He was a passenger with Slagle, patrolmen said.

The car in which they were riding left the road and struck a guard rail.

Rev. Cattell Will Give Final Conference Talk

Just a Year Ago Today —

In the darkening mid-afternoon of April 25, 1945, a young American second lieutenant crawled halfway across a wrecked bridge over the Elbe river at Torgau, Germany. He was met by a young fur-capped Russian private. They clasped hands, exchanged greetings: "Tovarich!" "Hello!" Their simple meeting symbolized the historic junction of the Anglo-American and Russian armies. The tired heart of Adolf Hitler's Germany had been cut in two. Disintegration of the defending Nazi forces became apparent everywhere. It was the dawn of victory for Allied arms.

Just what mills will do for wheat after their 21-day supply runs out is the big question being asked by the industry.

Unless the millers can get supplies from the government, they will be forced to shut down.

Although officials have not said so, the government no doubt will find it necessary to resell some wheat to millers to enable them to operate after their current stocks become available in July.

But with the government itself unable to buy sufficient wheat to meet its urgent export promises, there is serious thought it would be able to release enough grain to millers to enable them to supply Americans with flour at even the reduced distribution level.

The 30-cent bonus offer expires May 25, and officials expect farmers to take full advantage of it.

NATION FACES TIME MIX-UP ONCE AGAIN

Daylight Time Legal In 24 States Sunday. Survey Shows

To use a Shakespearean phrase, "the time is out of joint"—or will be, come 2 a. m. next Sunday.

For at that "witching hour" timepieces in six states and many points in 18 others will be pushed forward one hour to start postwar Daylight Saving time. The city of Salem is included.

But 24 other states and the District of Columbia, in a different frame of mind, will remain on Standard time.

Daylight Saving time was replaced by war time during the war, when clocks throughout the nation were set one hour ahead of Standard time. That time system ended last September after three years and eight months.

The states which will have Daylight saving time on a state-wide basis are: New Jersey, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Vermont, and Connecticut.

24 On Community Rule

Those states which will allow communities to make their own decision on the subject are: West Virginia, Illinois, Minnesota, Florida, Michigan, South Carolina, Kentucky, Missouri, New Mexico, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Ohio, Louisiana, New York, Delaware, Oregon, Maine and Maryland.

Radio networks, airlines and railroads, which must figure time on a nation-wide basis in planning schedules, have arranged to cope with the differences.

The networks said they would try to record and rebroadcast programs where a change would affect regular program times.

The Pennsylvania railroad and the New York Central railroad said they would operate on Standard time.

TWA, United and American airlines will rearrange their flight schedules.

Two persons were injured in two traffic accidents yesterday, state highway patrolmen said.

Willford C. Mellett, 21, of R. D. 1, Salem, suffered lacerations of the face and body bruises at 8:15 p. m. yesterday when his car swerved off Route 62, a mile north of Salem, and spun around several times. He told patrolmen he lost control of the vehicle on a curve. He was treated by a physician for minor injuries.

Two Are Injured In Auto Mishaps

Robert J. Slagle, 21, of East Liverpool, is in East Liverpool City jail today charged with driving while intoxicated as a result of an accident on Route 39, two miles south of Lisbon, at 5:20 p. m. yesterday.

Walter J. Tychonievich, 20, of East Liverpool, suffered a slight concussion in the accident and was brought to Salem City hospital. He was a passenger with Slagle, patrolmen said.

The car in which they were riding left the road and struck a guard rail.

Just a Year Ago Today —

In the darkening mid-afternoon of April 25, 1945, a young American second lieutenant crawled halfway across a wrecked bridge over the Elbe river at Torgau, Germany. He was met by a young fur-capped Russian private. They clasped hands, exchanged greetings: "Tovarich!" "Hello!" Their simple meeting symbolized the historic junction of the Anglo-American and Russian armies. The tired heart of Adolf Hitler's Germany had been cut in two. Disintegration of the defending Nazi forces became apparent everywhere. It was the dawn of victory for Allied arms.

BYRNES TAKES PLAN TO LIFT TARIFF CURBS

Secretary of State To Explain Proposal At Paris Meeting

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, April 25—A proposal that all European countries junk their tariffs in a bid to speed economic recovery of the continent has been drafted for Secretary of State Byrnes to lay before his Paris colleagues.

The free trade arrangement would extend over a five-year period.

Officials said the proposal was part of an overall plan which Byrnes took to Paris with him for today's opening of the foreign ministers' conference designed to break the big-power deadlock over European peace settlements.

The plan, however, has divided the secretary's advisers. In support of it are said to be Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson, Counselor Benjamin Cohen and Assistant Secretary Will Clayton.

Those described as opposed include Assistant Secretary James Dunn and Freeman Matthews, chief of the department's office of European affairs. These two and Cohen are in Paris with Byrnes.

Heart of Proposal

The heart of the proposal is that a United Nations regional office be opened at Geneva to include a European economic council functioning under the U.N. Economic and Social council which has headquarters in New York.

The task of the Geneva council would be to tackle European economic problems on a continent-wide basis instead of according to national political boundaries or the geography of river valleys and port locations. Four sub-agencies would handle (1) fuel and power, (2) trade and industry, (3) transport of all sorts, and (4) food.

The plan's actual introduction will depend on whether other and more established means of breaking the peace treaty deadlock are successful.

This deadlock chiefly involves Russia on the one hand and the United States and Britain on the other.

Exponents of the American proposal contend that at least a part of Russia's objection to peace treaty settlements favored by the United States and Britain is that Russia is suspicious of their objectives.

One of the main specific provisions of the plan is that in order to facilitate the reconstruction of Europe and the revival of commerce and trade, tariff barriers should be removed and an absolutely free flow of goods permitted. Exponents of this idea say they doubt that Europe ever again would impose tariffs if they could once be removed.

Independence Must Be Earned

An election in the Philippines seems remote, despite the fact that less than a year ago American soldiers were dying to make it possible. Moreover, it is an election to prepare the islands for their independence on the coming July 4, which seems almost absurd, under the circumstances.

But there is nothing absurd about it, nor is the Philippines election remote. It is the fulfillment of a promise—a promise made under politically dubious circumstances but made, nevertheless. Throughout Asia, where politics is geared directly to the cynicism of old and weary civilizations, that promise was noted and is being watched carefully.

No Asiatic really believes the Philippines will gain independence from the nation on whose good will and military power they depend. Filipinos themselves doubt as a consequence of the war that they are ready to take responsibility for independence. Yet, they are going to get it, and they know they are going to get it. There will be no breaking of faith.

In whatever form it may take, in recognition of war's impact on the Philippines, independence has been earned. It has been earned by loyalty, courage and suffering. It has been earned by Filipinos who bore the brunt of Japan's first assaults on American outposts in the Pacific.

Beyond and above the mundane details of sugar, oil, tariff restrictions, naval strategy, oriental politics are some of the most glorious chapters in the record of courage during World War II, chapters written in the blood of Filipinos who fought for the United States because they had confidence in its promises.

International Debating Society

The concern voiced by Wendell Willkie's widow about American indifference to the United Nations is justified, but the indifference is excusable. It is inevitable and of concern to more Americans than the wife of the internationalist who wrote "One World".

Everything that has happened in the U.N. so far has contributed to the impression it is turning into an international debating society composed of debaters acting on orders from remote capitals. It appears that Mr. Gromyko speaks for the Kremlin, Mr. Cadogan for Downing Street, Mr. Byrnes for Washington and Mr. Stettinius for Mr. Byrnes. It further appears that the smaller nations speak with no more authority than can be mustered by their friendship with larger nations and that the security council is an arena in which Russia is fighting for its nationalism and ideology against the nationalisms and ideologies of the United States and Great Britain.

These impressions may be wrong. Millions of persons who can look forward to nothing but sudden death if cooperative security fails are praying that something may happen soon to justify the faith they want to feel in the U.N.

But these are the impressions, nevertheless, that explain why Americans of Mrs. Willkie's acquaintance and of everyone's acquaintance are becoming indifferent to what goes on in the gymnasium on the campus of Hunter college. It is their impression that nothing is going on in the gymnasium but talk; that all the important business is going on elsewhere, in secret; and that the debate in the Bronx has nothing to do with prevention of future wars.

Still The First Hundred

The death of Harlan E. Stone, chief justice of the United States, gives President Truman the privilege of another Supreme court appointment—only the 90th since the first court was formed in 1789. Chief Justice Stone was only the 12th American to serve as the court's chief officer.

His contemporaries inevitably are aware of the fact he is the last of the pre-New Deal justices to leave the bench, though in that respect his passing is an anticlimax. The last of the pre-New Deal conceptions of the court's function disappeared a good many years ago.

Chief Justice Stone was one of a succession of Americans who bore extraordinary responsibility for custodianship of the law. It is perhaps the most demanding job, short of the presidency, that has been created in American government.

To whatever extent the nation's prospects of survival are still improving after more than 150 years of trial and error, success and failure, integrity and betrayal, credit is due in great part to the thinking of members of the Supreme court who were able to rise above the shortcomings of prejudice.

Harlan E. Stone, in the opinion of those who knew him best, acquitted himself with honor in a position which represents the ultimate test of faith in American principles.

The best proof that it takes two to make a bargain: mother buys and dad pays.

The great American greeting, "hello," is slipping. Nowadays it's "stick 'em up!"

The marrying month of June soon will be traveling along at the rate of lots of knots.

The tide rises and falls with the moon—the untied just falls.

The Stars Say

For Friday, April 26.

IT IS possible that some indiscreet, imprudent, or unguarded word or deed may prove to be a disturbing and calamitous factor in breaking up or complicating a propitious and exceptionally progressive state of affairs.

This might be due to envy, jealousy or loss of temper or emotional balance, precipitating financial loss, lasting regrets, reflecting on the reputation or social as well as business standing and security. Fair play, amiability and good nature might avert such penalties and discomfort.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is are advised to cultivate a feeling of justice, amiability, good nature and fair play, as there is a possibility of their lack inviting losses and regrets should they indulge in emotional or turbulent conduct, born of enmity, jealousy, or other unguarded and unfriendly action or behavior.

This conduct is likely to result in devastating, splendid, auspicious prospects, with loss of funds, reputation and social standing, as well as peace of mind and happiness in domestic or sentimental relations.

A child born on this day may have certain wayward or unamiable proclivities which may react unhappily on its happiness and success in life unless "nipped in the bud".

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Human Air Conditioning In Body

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
AIR-CONDITIONING is one of the most recent attainments of modern engineering, yet long before man had come to trouble along the path of scientific progress to devise such a thing himself, he was enjoying its benefits.

The nose, commonly thought of only as the organ of smell, is in reality equally important as an air-conditioner. Its mechanism is "set" by nature automatically to filter, cleanse and warm every breath of air you breathe.

Thus, the infinitely delicate structure of the lungs (and the interior of the body generally) is protected against germs, dirt and inclement temperatures.

Passages Blocked
If nasal passages become blocked and this important function interfered with, it is easy to understand that you are going to have trouble and suffer discomfort. Perhaps the most common cause of blocking of the nose is what is called deviation of the nasal septum. This means that the septum is too far over to one or the other side.

The septum is the partition which separates the two cavities of the nose. If the septum is not so far out of position that it blocks the nasal passages, as a rule nothing need be done.

According to Dr. W. Ogilvy Reid of England, a test can be carried out to determine if an operation for straightening the nasal septum will be of any benefit. This is done by shrinking the lining membrane of the nose using cocaine and ephedrine.

If after doing this the patient can breathe more freely and his discomfort is relieved, the operation for straightening the septum will probably be of some help to him.

Dr. Reid believes this operation is a difficult one and should be carried out only by experts. He thinks that a number of patients who have headaches in the front part of the head are not suffering from sinus infection but, rather, from a deviation of the septum.

The pressure of the septum on other parts of the nose causes pain which is located over the frontal sinuses in the forehead.

If shrinking the lining membrane of the nose thus opening the nasal passages, relieves this pain it may be presumed that the operation on the septum will be of benefit to the patient.

Turbinate Growth
Another cause of blocking of the nasal passages is an overgrowth of the lining membrane over one of the three bones located in the nose known as the turbinates. Partial removal of one of the turbinates will give relief in these cases.

Great care is used in all operations on the nose not to remove more of the lining membrane than is necessary, since this membrane is the chief of the nose's important air-conditioning mechanism.

Still another cause of blocking of the nasal passages is the growth of tiny tumors called polyps. These polyps can be removed surgically but they have a tendency to recur.

When blocking of the nasal passages occurs a careful study by a specialist in such disorders to determine the cause should be carried out before treatment is decided upon.

Independence Must Be Earned

An election in the Philippines seems remote, despite the fact that less than a year ago American soldiers were dying to make it possible. Moreover, it is an election to prepare the islands for their independence on the coming July 4, which seems almost absurd, under the circumstances.

But there is nothing absurd about it, nor is the Philippines election remote. It is the fulfillment of a promise—a promise made under politically dubious circumstances but made, nevertheless. Throughout Asia, where politics is geared directly to the cynicism of old and weary civilizations, that promise was noted and is being watched carefully.

No Asiatic really believes the Philippines will gain independence from the nation on whose good will and military power they depend. Filipinos themselves doubt as a consequence of the war that they are ready to take responsibility for independence. Yet, they are going to get it, and they know they are going to get it. There will be no breaking of faith.

In whatever form it may take, in recognition of war's impact on the Philippines, independence has been earned. It has been earned by loyalty, courage and suffering. It has been earned by Filipinos who bore the brunt of Japan's first assaults on American outposts in the Pacific.

Beyond and above the mundane details of sugar, oil, tariff restrictions, naval strategy, oriental politics are some of the most glorious chapters in the record of courage during World War II, chapters written in the blood of Filipinos who fought for the United States because they had confidence in its promises.

International Debating Society

The concern voiced by Wendell Willkie's widow about American indifference to the United Nations is justified, but the indifference is excusable. It is inevitable and of concern to more Americans than the wife of the internationalist who wrote "One World".

Everything that has happened in the U.N. so far has contributed to the impression it is turning into an international debating society composed of debaters acting on orders from remote capitals. It appears that Mr. Gromyko speaks for the Kremlin, Mr. Cagocan for Downing Street, Mr. Byrnes for Washington and Mr. Stettinius for Mr. Byrnes. It further appears that the smaller nations speak with no more authority than can be mustered by their friendship with larger nations and that the security council is an arena in which Russia is fighting for its nationalism and ideology against the nationalisms and ideologies of the United States and Great Britain.

These impressions may be wrong. Millions of persons who can look forward to nothing but sudden death if cooperative security fails are praying that something may happen soon to justify the faith they want to feel in the U.N.

But these are the impressions, nevertheless, that explain why Americans of Mrs. Willkie's acquaintance and of everyone's acquaintance are becoming indifferent to what goes on in the gymnasium on the campus of Hunter college. It is their impression that nothing is going on in the gymnasium but talk; that all the important business is going on elsewhere, in secret; and that the debate in the Bronx has nothing to do with prevention of future wars.

Still The First Hundred

The death of Harlan E. Stone, chief justice of the United States, gives President Truman the privilege of another Supreme court appointment—only the 90th since the first court was formed in 1789. Chief Justice Stone was only the 12th American to serve as the court's chief officer.

His contemporaries inevitably are aware of the fact he is the last of the pre-New Deal justices to leave the bench, though in that respect his passing is an anticlimax. The last of the pre-New Deal conceptions of the court's function disappeared a good many years ago.

Chief Justice Stone was one of a succession of Americans who bore extraordinary responsibility for custodianship of the law. It is perhaps the most demanding job, short of the presidency, that has been created in American government.

To whatever extent the nation's prospects of survival are still improving after more than 150 years of trial and error, success and failure, integrity and betrayal, credit is due in great part to the thinking of members of the Supreme court who were able to rise above the shortcomings of prejudice.

Harlan E. Stone, in the opinion of those who knew him best, acquitted himself with honor in a position which represents the ultimate test of faith in American principles.

The best proof that it takes two to make a bargain: mother buys and dad pays.

The great American greeting: "hello," is slipping. Nowadays it's "stick 'em up!"

The marrying month of June soon will be traveling along at the rate of lots of knots.

Some folks are never satisfied because the world is so full of a number of things—they can't have!

The tide rises and falls with the moon—the untied just falls.

The Stars Say

For Friday, April 26.

IT IS possible that some indiscreet, imprudent, or unguarded word or deed may prove to be a disturbing and calamitous factor in breaking up or complicating a propitious and exceptionally progressive state of affairs.

This might be due to envy, jealousy or loss of temper or emotional balance, precipitating financial loss, lasting regrets, reflecting on the reputation or social as well as business standing and security. Fair play, amiability and good nature might avert such penalties and discomfort.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is are advised to cultivate a feeling of justice, amiability, good nature and fair play, as there is a possibility of their lack inviting losses and regrets should they indulge in emotional or turbulent conduct, born of enmity, jealousy, or other unguarded and unfriendly action or behavior.

This conduct is likely to result in devastating, splendid, auspicious prospects, with loss of funds, reputation and social standing, as well as peace of mind and happiness in domestic or sentimental relations.

A child born on this day may have certain wayward or unamiable proclivities which may react unhappily on its happiness and success in life unless "nipped in the bud".

Homes are being sought in Raleigh, N. C., for pigeons that served with the Army Signal Corps. No fair inviting them in just for dinner.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Human Air Conditioning In Body

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
AIR-CONDITIONING is one of the most recent attainments of modern engineering, yet long before man had come far enough along the path of scientific progress to devise such a thing himself, he was enjoying its benefits.

The nose, commonly thought of only as the organ of smell, is in reality equally important as an air-conditioner. Its mechanism is "set" by nature automatically to filter, cleanse and warm every breath of air you breathe. Thus, the infinitely delicate structure of the lungs (and the interior of the body generally) is protected against germs, dirt and inclement temperatures.

Passages Blocked
If nasal passages become blocked and this important function interfered with, it is easy to understand that you are going to have trouble and suffer discomfort. Perhaps the most common cause of blocking of the nose is what is called deviation of the nasal septum. This means that the septum is too far over to one or the other side.

The septum is the partition which separates the two cavities of the nose. If the septum is not so far out of position that it blocks the nasal passages, as a rule nothing need be done.

According to Dr. W. Ogilvy Reid of England, a test can be carried out to determine if an operation for straightening the nasal septum will be of any benefit. This is done by shrinking the lining membrane of the nose using cocaine and epinephrine.

If after doing this the patient can breathe more freely and his discomfort is relieved, the operation for straightening the septum will probably be of some help to him.

Dr. Reid believes this operation is a difficult one and should be carried out only by experts. He thinks that a number of patients who have headaches in the front part of the head are not suffering from sinus infection but, rather, from a deviation of the septum.

The pressure of the septum on other parts of the nose causes pain which is located over the frontal sinuses in the forehead.

If shrinking the lining membrane of the nose, thus opening the nasal passages, relieves this pain it may be presumed that the operation on the septum will be of benefit to the patient.

Turbinate Growth

Another cause of blocking of the nasal passages is an overgrowth of the lining membrane over one of the three bones located in the nose known as the turbinates. Partial removal of one of the turbinates will give relief in these cases.

Great care is used in all operations on the nose not to remove more of the lining membrane than is necessary, since this membrane is the chief of the nose's important air-conditioning mechanism.

Still another cause of blocking of the nasal passages is the growth of tiny tumors called polyps. These polyps can be removed surgically but they have a tendency to recur.

When blocking of the nasal passages occurs a careful study by a specialist in such disorders to determine the cause should be carried out before treatment is decided upon.

Herbert Demands Investigation of Ferguson's Office

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, April 25—Former Lieutenant Governor Paul M. Herbert today demanded an official investigation of the office of State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson.

Elaborating on previous assertions that Ferguson was conducting a "racket," Herbert wrote Gov. Frank J. Lausche that he felt enough facts had been established "to require an investigation . . . by you, by the attorney general, or by a legislative committee."

"The auditor," he wrote, "is using the time and effort of employees of his office, in carrying on and in furtherance of his many and diversified personal financial and commercial activities."

Herbert, currently campaigning for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor, re-iterated his belief that the Joseph T. Ferguson Associates, Inc., was engaged in "unfair activities."

Commission Allowance

This firm was organized, he said, "to deal in surplus war commodities on behalf of political subdivisions, and also to sell surplus commodities to private firms and individuals."

"No commission is allowable on sales to political subdivisions, but a commission of 12.5 per cent is authorized and paid by the government on sales to private firms and individuals," Herbert asserted.

"A powerful political figure like Ferguson going after surplus war commodities could well make veterans' priority a vain and hollow phrase. Ohio private businessmen and veterans should have a fair and honest opportunity to secure surplus commodities out of the billions of dollars worth available, without paying a 12.5 per cent commission or tribute."

In addition to the Surplus War Commodities corporation, Herbert said that "out of the auditor's office there are now published at least five newspapers and a state wide news service."

"These papers, so I am advised, are the East Columbus News, the South Side Sun, East Side News, Bexley Herald and a Reynoldsburg newspaper."

"The editor and publisher of these newspapers and news service," he continued, "is on the state payroll at $278.75 a month. Such an operation is grossly unfair to residential newspapers that have a pretty hard time making ends meet."

Herbert Demands Investigation of Ferguson's Office

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, April 25—Former Lieutenant Governor Paul M. Herbert today demanded an official investigation of the office of State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson.

Elaborating on previous assertions that Ferguson was conducting a "racket," Herbert wrote Gov. Frank J. Lausche that he felt enough facts had been established "to require an investigation... by you, by the attorney general, or by a legislative committee."

"The auditor," he wrote, "is using the time and effort of employees of his office, in carrying on and in furtherance of his many and diversified personal financial and commercial activities."

Herbert, currently campaigning for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor, re-iterated his belief that the Joseph T. Ferguson Associates, Inc., was engaged in "unfair activities."

Commission Allowance

This firm was organized, he said, "to deal in surplus war commodities on behalf of political subdivisions, and also to sell surplus commodities to private firms and individuals."

"No commission is allowable on sales to political subdivisions, but a commission of 12.5 per cent is authorized and paid by the government on sales to private firms and individuals," Herbert asserted.

"A powerful political figure like Ferguson going after surplus war commodities could well make veterans' priority a vain and hollow phrase. Ohio private businessmen and veterans should have a fair and honest opportunity to secure surplus commodities out of the billions of dollars worth available, without paying a 12.5 per cent commission or tribute."

In addition to the Surplus War Commodities corporation, Herbert said that "out of the auditor's office there are now published at least five newspapers and a state wide news service."

"These papers, so I am advised, are the East Columbus News, the South Side Sun, East Side News, Bexley Herald and a Reynoldsburg newspaper."

"The editor and publisher of these newspapers and news service," he continued, "is on the state payroll at $278.75 a month. Such an operation is grossly unfair to residential newspapers that have a pretty hard time making ends meet."

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. White of the Lisbon rd., and her sister, Mrs. Stanton Heck of E. State st., left today for Washington, D. C., where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Braman.

Best War Memorial I Know

There's an old war memorial in our town that I like to stop and look at now and then.

Back in 1865, folks gathered up all the bitter relics of battle and put them in a pile: cannon, battered rifles, broken swords, and rusted bayonets. Some of them from our side, some captured from the enemy.

They melted them down, and from this litter of war sprung a monument to friendship, tolerance and understanding—a promise that the bitterness and hatred were forgotten.

Since then, there've been all kinds of disagreements in this country, big and little. Prohibition was one—and there was plenty of bloodshed, misery and grief until the problem was resolved.

But from where I sit, it's part of the greatness of America that we remain a united country. We may disagree as individuals—but, accepting that difference of opinion, we can live in tolerance and mutual respect.

Era Of Economic Expansion Seen In Hawaiian Islands

(By United Press)
HONOLULU, T. H.—The success of wartime farming on South Pacific islands may well prove the opening wedge of a new era of economic expansion in which the Hawaiian islands hope to play a prominent part.

Farms established by the United States Foreign Economic Administration in Solomons and New Hebrides islands produced 13,000,000 pounds of foodstuffs in 1944 from 4,000 acres of land that had been tropical jungle before the war.

These successful farms, demonstrating the feasibility of raising the economic standards of island natives, foreshadow a vast program of development in the islands formerly held as Japanese mandates.

Foresee Training Center
Administration of the islands by governmental agencies would call for extensive agricultural experimentation and the training of a new class of American "colonial" civil servants.

Hawaiian educators and businessmen foresee that the Hawaiian islands may become the training center for administrative personnel for the expansive island empire captured from the Japanese. Too, the territorial islands may serve as a reservoir of personnel, providing administrators already accustomed to tropical climate and fitted by temperament and training to deal with the native populations.

Nations that have in the past developed large colonial empires have depended upon civil servants who made careers of colonial administration. If trusteeship or control of the islands taken from Japan is entrusted to the United States, island administration might become an important profession.

The United States Commercial Co., operating under the jurisdiction of the Reconstruction Finance Corp., is making a survey of economic possibilities in the Caroline, Marianas and Marshall Islands. A number of Hawaiian residents already are employed in this survey.

Aided Native Trade
The Foreign Economic Administration, charged with making the islands captured by the leap-frogging American forces economically stable, instituted the farm experiments in the Southwest Pacific in 1943. The following year the FEA began work in the Marianas and eight months later had 1,924 acres under cultivation.

In addition to agricultural development, the FEA established trade operations with natives. The production of copra was encouraged and co-operatives for the pooling of produce were organized. The sale of articles of native handicraft to souvenir-hungry soldiers and sailors was supervised by FEA authorities and enterprising natives placed in charge of stores and exchange centers as rapidly as they could be trained.

The agricultural operations and equipment too, were placed in native hands as soon as they were put on a sound basis.

These wartime expediences set the pattern for what some Pacific observers think may be a long period of increasing prosperity for the Micronesian and Melanesian areas.

C. of C. Urges All Price Controls End by March, '47

WASHINGTON, April 25 — The United States Chamber of Commerce today called for an end of all price and rent controls by March 31, 1947.

The recommendation was made in a statement prepared for the senate banking committee by Emerson P. Schmidt, the Chamber's director of economic research.

He said the directors of the Chamber advocated lifting price controls, with the exception of rent by Oct. 31. The rent regulations should be removed by next March 31, he added.

Food Is Condemned

COLUMBUS, April 25—A libel action for seizure of 21 bags of rice, now in possession of Baker Bros. at Zanesville, O., was filed today by the government in U. S. district court.

The action charged the rice contained filthy matter. A libel against 36 cases of tomato catsup now in the possession of F. J. Beasley Co., Athens, O., also was filed, charging that the bottles contained decomposed tomato material.

British Surprised At Byrnes Plan

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, April 25—British diplomatic quarters received with surprise today a report from Washington that Secretary of State Byrnes might propose to the Paris foreign ministers conference that all European countries discard tariffs as part of an overall scheme to tackle Europe's economic problems on a continent-wide basis.

The first reaction from sources close to the British government was that it is not a suitable time for such a move, although it was acknowledged that the economic question might be used as a wedge to break the big power deadlock in Europe.

The first consideration, a foreign office spokesman said, is Europe's peace treaties. Although unable to comment further until apprised of Byrnes' exact recommendations, the spokesman indicated Britain was willing in general to cooperate and already has announced she was agreeable to a reduction of tariffs.

The 3,410,000,000 trucks registered in the United States are in the hands of 2,500,000 owners.

Two-Year-Old Girl Is Attacked By Fox

MARTINS FERRY, April 25—A grey fox, apparently rabid, attacked a two-year-old girl yesterday on the porch of her farm home and pursued her into the house, where it was killed.

The victim, Carol Mae Holt, was bitten about the face and one lip was pierced. She was administered an anti-rabic vaccine and today the fox was being examined to ascertain if it had rabies.

The incident occurred on Rocky Fork, 15 miles from Powhatan, in a remote section of Belmont county.

The child was playing on the porch when the fox attacked her. She ran into the living room. Her mother, Anna, who was nursing a seven-week-old baby, looked down to see Carol Mae on the floor and the fox biting her.

Mrs. Holt, who weighs only 90 pounds, grabbed a chair and beat the fox to death.

FACES GRAND JURY ON TWO CHARGES

YOUNGSTOWN, April 25—Truman Rogers, 31-year-old operator of a restaurant in Pittsburgh, is being held for the Mahoning county grand jury on two charges—armed robbery and abduction.

A robber held up Ivan Smith's drug store on April 5, taking $130 and carrying away in his car the druggist's pretty daughter, Patricia. After a "wild ride," she was released near East Liverpool, unharmed, and police quoted her as saying her abductor had "nice manners" and was "gentlemanly."

Rogers pleaded innocent to the two charges yesterday before Municipal Judge Peter B. Mulholland and waived preliminary hearing.

The judge set his bond at $10,000 on the robbery charge and $25,000 on the kidnapping charge.

Rogers was arrested in Pittsburgh Monday night. Chief of Detectives William A. Reed said the man signed statements admitting the holdup and abduction.

3 Passengers Die As Navy Plane Hits Ground

HAYWARD, Calif., April 25—Three passengers aboard a twin-engine navy plane were killed last night when the craft crashed in a grove of trees on a ridge seven miles northeast of here.

The pilot of the plane, enroute from San Diego to Alameda, had notified the Alameda station he was going to attempt a landing at Oakland when he was informed the ceiling was low because of fog.

Shortly thereafter navy men on duty at a nearby machinegun range reported a terrific explosion about three miles from them. Investigation disclosed the plane's wreckage scattered over a wide area. One body was found in the ship's fuselage and the others 40 or 50 feet away.

Navy men at the scene of the crash identified the plane as a twin-tailed R-50. Names of the victims were not released.

Roxas Leads Osmena In Filipino Voting

MANILA, April 25—Colorful Manuel Roxas who campaigned strenuously for the Philippines presidency while incumbent Sergio Osmena sat silently in the palace, forged into an 82,282 vote lead tonight.

Returns from 3,409 of 14,238 precincts gave:

Roxas 335,529.

Osmena 253,247.

There still was no confirmation of Osmena headquarters' earlier claims that the rural vote would give him the presidency for the Philippines' first four years of independence. Roxas had added 2,585 votes to his lead in the last 561 precincts reporting.

Legal troubles climaxed the outstanding unsuccessful campaign of the third candidate, Dr. Hilario Camino Moncado. As early returns promised him less than one per cent of the total vote, the people's court added to his sorrows by scheduling for Monday his arraignment as a collaborator.

Prosecutors charged that Moncado, a five-star general in the so-called crusaders' army, headed a Japanese-sponsored neighborhood organization during the war.

The islands will become a republic, independent of the United States, next July 4—with this week's winner as president.

Venereal Disease Rate High Among Yanks In Europe

By RICHARD O'EGAN

FRANKFURT, Germany, April 25—Army medical officers recommended today U. S. occupation troops in Europe be given plenty of work on the drill field as a means of fighting an excessive venereal disease rate and to implement Gen. Joseph T. McNarney's disciplinary crackdown.

Maj. Claude M. Eberhart of Chicago, venereal disease control officer for the European theater, proposed all major commands in Europe "return to garrison life" and its strict discipline to fight venereal disease, which he said now averages 211 cases per thousand men per year.

Gen. McNarney, in his orders yesterday to tighten discipline, listed the "excessive venereal disease rate" as one indication of deteriorating GI morale and discipline.

Maj. Eberhart said the annual rate rose from 52 cases per thousand on V-E day to highs of 427 per thousand in some areas.

"There is, however, no guarantee that the rate won't continue to rocket," Eberhart said. "Food shortages, as they grow worse, will increase the promiscuity of girls, who will become more willing to sell themselves for chocolate bars and the necessities of life which soldiers can provide."

"One of the few alternatives," he continued, "is to enforce army discipline, with emphasis on drills, reviews, parades, tightening of courtesy and general discipline, and a re-institution of military calls, such as retreat and reveille."

"This will not only keep the idle soldier off the streets but will give him pride in being a soldier. Right now many soldiers have no pride, and men without pride don't care with whom they sleep."

Maj. Eberhart said the venereal disease rate, which climbed sharply after V-E day, dropped slightly in September as a result of an educational program and redeployment, but then began to skyrocket again.

YOUTHS GIVEN LIFE IN DEPUTY'S DEATH

XENIA, April 25—Convicted in a speedy, two-day joint murder trial, Ernest Evans, 21, and Clarence Tucker, 20, today face life prison terms for the gun battle murder of Deputy Sheriff Earl C. Confer.

Chief Defense Counsel George H. Smith said yesterday's verdict was "all we could expect" and that no appeal would be made as it would "open the door again to a capital offense" verdict.

Pound guilty of first degree murder with a recommendation for mercy, the Cincinnati youths were sentenced after a 30-minute deliberation by the three judge court.

Confer was killed here Jan. 29 during an investigation of the pair on suspicion of automobile theft.

On or after this date, I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by anyone other than myself.

Writer Hits Destruction Of U. S. Lands, Forests

DALLAS, Texas, April 25—Louis Bromfield, novelist, told a concluding session of the American Planning and Civic association here last night that no country in world history had ever destroyed its agricultural lands and forests as has the United States.

Bromfield urged a halt to what he termed "costly and dangerous mismanagement of our natural resources." His address was made at a joint dinner-meeting of the association and friends of the late Dr. Jonathan Forman of Columbus, O., an official of friends of the land, spoke on the importance of raising foodstuffs in chemically balanced soils.

By RICHARD O'NEGAN

FRANKFURT, Germany, April 25—Army medical officers recommended today U. S. occupation troops in Europe be given plenty of work on the drill field as a means of fighting an excessive venereal disease rate and to implement Gen. Joseph T. McNarney's disciplinary crackdown.

Maj. Claude M. Eberhart of Chicago, venereal disease control officer for the European theater, proposed all major commands in Europe "return to garrison life" and its strict discipline to fight venereal disease, which he said now averages 211 cases per thousand men per year.

Gen. McNarney, in his orders yesterday to tighten discipline, listed the "excessive venereal disease rate" as one indication of deteriorating GI morale and discipline. Maj. Eberhart said the annual rate rose from 52 cases per thousand on V-E day to highs of 427 per thousand in some areas.

"There is, however, no guarantee that the rate won't continue to rocket," Eberhart said. "Food shortages, as they grow worse, will increase the promiscuity of girls, who will become more willing to sell themselves for chocolate bars and the necessities of life which soldiers can provide."

"One of the few alternatives," he continued, "is to enforce army discipline, with emphasis on drills, reviews, parades, tightening of courtesy and general discipline, and a re-institution of military calls, such as retreat and reveille."

"This will not only keep the idle soldier off the streets but will give him pride in being a soldier. Right now many soldiers have no pride, and men without pride don't care with whom they sleep."

Maj. Eberhart said the venereal disease rate, which climbed sharply after V-E day, dropped slightly in September as a result of an educational program and redeployment, but then began to skyrocket again.

YOUTHS GIVEN LIFE IN DEPUTY'S DEATH

XENIA, April 25—Convicted in a speedy, two-day joint murder trial, Ernest Evans, 21, and Clarence Tucker, 20, today face life prison terms for the gun battle murder of Deputy Sheriff Earl C. Confer.
Chief Defense Counsel George H. Smith said yesterday's verdict was "all we could expect" and that no appeal would be made as it would "open the door again to a capital offense" verdict.
Found guilty of first degree murder with a recommendation for mercy, the Cincinnati youths were sentenced after a 30-minute deliberation by the three judge court.
Confer was killed here Jan. 29 during an investigation of the pair on suspicion of automobile theft.

On or after this date, I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by anyone other than myself.
A. RALPH RUSH.

COALITION GOVERNMENT FOR JAPS?

PREMIER BARON KIJURO SHIDEHARA, left, and his entire Japanese cabinet has resigned en masse, declaring the move was an effort to stabilize the political situation in the occupied country. Observers are of the opinion that Emperor Hirohito will not name a new premier immediately, but rather will wait for Shidehara's recommendations. It appears most likely a coalition government will emerge headed by either Shidehara, who leads the Progressive party, or Ichiro Hatoyama, right, Liberal party leader. (International)

Quakers Display Improvement In Win Over Spartans Here; Tribe Rallies To Score Five Runs In Eighth And Win 5 to 1

Fred Cope's Charges Pull Surprise Win, 65 3/4 to 52 1/4, Over A Highly Regarded Boardman High Team At Reilly Stadium

Coach Fred Cope's galloping Quakers, improving more and more as the season progresses, stepped into high gear at Reilly stadium yesterday afternoon to pull a surprise upset, 65 3/4 to 52 1/4, over Coach Lowell "Rib" Allen's Boardman Spartans, previously rated as one of the top track powers in this section.

The impressive victory, decided only in the next to last event, places Cope's charges high among district track outfits, with a good possibility of becoming 1946 county champions.

It was Salem's third victory in as many dual affairs, previous wins coming easily over Youngstown, Rayen and Louisville.

Salem enters the annual Uhrichsville relay Friday when the competition not only broadens, but stiffens considerably. About 12 teams are expected.

Again Senior Bill Ward, captain of local squad, topped the individual honors for the meet with first in the 100, the 220 and the low hurdles. His times were fair in all three events.

Ward bettered his 11 second 100 mark, posted against Rayen, by three tenths of a second. His 220 mark came down to 24.1, two tenths of a second better than his Rayen meet first. In the low hurdles he managed a 27.2 seconds, somewhat better than his 27.6 in the Rayen dual.

John Stolta, veteran hurdler, had bad luck in the lows, falling on the next to the last hurdle when second place seemed certain. He did better in the highs, however, chalking up a good 15.9 second time to win.

Salem collected nine firsts and five seconds in the meet, besting Boardman in every event except the shot put, discus, half mile relay, half mile run and 440.

One of the day's most thrilling shows was presented by Glen Thorne. The ace distance man came from behind in a thrilling finish to win the mile from Boardman's Jim Davies with a four minute 46 second time, eight seconds faster than the previous best of 4:54 against Rayen.

Thorne, who specializes in delayed spurts at the bend of the final lap, spurred just in time to pass Davies about 10 yards from the finish mark. He won going away.

His delayed power, which seems almost futile when it begins, proved valuable to Salem in the half mile also when he placed second in the exact same manner.

Sophomore Dick Theiss, whose specialty is broad jumping, showed the fruits of persistent practice with a 29 foot half inch leap in the pit event. The mark is one of the best posted here in dual affairs in recent years. Bob Boone's 18 feet 11 1/2 inches took second in the event.

The outcome of the meet yesterday was uncertain until the mile relay, which Salem won in a surprisingly good time.

The team, composed of Ray Snyder, Howard Herrington, Don Coppock and Danny Crawford, clicked off the four-lap event in three minutes 45.2 seconds, considerably better than the 3:50.1 posted against Rayen two weeks ago.

John Sherman Lollar Starts To End Hayes' Streak And Bangs In Three Big Runs

By JOE REICHLER, Associated Press Sports Writer

Unless all signs fail, young John Sherman Lollar, Cleveland's rookie backstop who was the big reason for Manager Lou Boudreau's decision to rest Frankie Hayes after the veteran catcher had extended his record-breaking consecutive game streak to 312, appears headed for major league stardom.

The soft-spoken 21-year-old native of Fayetteville, Ark., followed his own recipe yesterday when in his first starting role with the Indians, he doubled with the bases loaded to clear the sacks, highlighting a five-run eighth-inning rally which gave the tribe a 5-1 victory over the St. Louis Browns.

Lollar began his professional career in just about the same manner. It was in the 1944 International league opener that Lollar, then a 19-year-old youth making his debut with the Baltimore Orioles, smashed a homer with the bases loaded in his first pro game.

The six-foot, 180-pound receiver went on to become the league's batting champion and most valuable player the following year and was sold at the close of last season to the Indians for a working agreement price of $10,000.

In addition to his double yesterday, Lollar smacked a single in three official trips to the plate and handled the slants of Charles (Red) Embree, his old Baltimore battery mate, perfectly. He accepted nine chances cleanly, including two assists.

Manager Lou Boudreau plans to use both Hayes and Lollar, declaring: "There will be plenty of work for both." Boudreau admitted it was a tough decision to end Hayes' streak, but said "I had to start the kid sometime, and I preferred to start him on the road." The manager also said he believed Hayes would be better off now that the pressure was off, and lauded Frank's prowess.

Hayes said: "I told Lou last year and I told him again today that I would do anything possible to help the club. Certainly I was proud of the streak, but I realized it had to end some day."

Back in Cleveland today for a two-day stand against the White Sox, the Tribe will send Alie Reynolds to the mound for an attempt at a second win over the Chicagoans. Ed Lopat or Joe Haynes will start for the visitors.

The victory boosted the Indians' percentage to .600 but failed to advance them from their fourth place position behind the New York Yankees, Detroit and the Boston Red Sox.

The Yankees moved into undisputed possession of first place in the American league by whipping the Red Sox 12-5 on the wings of a 15-hit attack against five Sox hurlers.

Tex Hughson and Ted Williams, a pair of Sox favorites, disappointed a near record crowd of 30,028 who saw the Sox drop from first to third place.

John Sherman Lollar Starts To End Hayes' Streak And Bangs In Three Big Runs

By JOE REICHLER, Associated Press Sports Writer

Unless all signs fail, young John Sherman Lollar, Cleveland's rookie backstop who was the big reason for Manager Lou Boudreau's decision to rest Frankie Hayes after the veteran catcher had extended his record-breaking consecutive game streak to 312, appears headed for major league stardom.

The soft-spoken 21-year-old native of Fayetteville, Ark., followed his own recipe yesterday when in his first starting role with the Indians, he doubled with the bases loaded to clear the sacks, highlighting a five-run eighth-inning rally which gave the tribe a 5-1 victory over the St. Louis Browns.

Lollar began his professional career in just about the same manner. It was in the 1944 International league opener that Lollar, then a 19-year-old youth making his debut with the Baltimore Orioles, smashed a homer with the bases loaded in his first pro game.

The six-foot, 180-pound receiver went on to become the league's batting champion and most valuable player the following year when he was sold at the close of last season to the Indians for a working agreement price of $10,000.

In addition to his double yesterday, Lollar smacked a single in three official trips to the plate and handled the shanks of Charles (Red) Embree, his old Baltimore battery mate, perfectly. He accepted nine chances cleanly, including two assists.

Manager Lou Boudreau plans to use both Hayes and Lollar, declaring: "There will be plenty of work for both."

Boudreau admitted it was a tough decision to end Hayes' streak, but said "I had to start the kid sometime, and I preferred to start him on the road." The manager also said he believed Hayes would be better off now that the pressure was off, and lauded Frank's prowess.

Hayes said: "I told Lou last year and I told him again today that I would do anything possible to help the club. Certainly I was proud of the streak, but I realized it had to end some day."

Back in Cleveland today for a two-day stand against the White Sox, the Tribe will send Alie Reynolds to the mound for an attempt at a second win over the Chicagoans. Ed Lopat or Joe Haynes will start for the visitors.

The victory boosted the Indians' percentage to .699 but failed to advance them from their fourth place position behind the New York Yankees, Detroit and the Boston Red Sox.

The Yankees moved into undisputed possession of first place in the American league by whipping the Red Sox 12-5 on the wings of a 15-hit attack against five Sox hurlers.

Tex Hughson and Ted Williams, a pair of Sox favorites, disappointed a near record crowd of 30,028 who saw the Sox drop from first to third place.

Your GI Rights

Questions and Answers On Problems of the Servicemen

WASHINGTON — Re-employment rights of veterans are the subject of the following questions:

Q—I was a WAC, and was a governess before I went into the service. Do I have re-employment rights?

A—That would depend upon whether or not your former employer was in a position to rehire you, or was still in need of a governess.

Q—I am a veteran, and came back to my old job to find a man who had been with the company longer than I in my place. He had been moved up. They say that if I get that job he will have to be fired. Temporarily, I have taken another job with the company which doesn't pay as much. I understand that the Supreme court has now decided that I have a right to my old job, regardless of who has to be fired. Is that true? And will he be fired automatically to make room for me?

A—The question of super-seniority is now pending before the Supreme court in the form of a test case. It hasn't been decided yet. Even if so-called super-seniority should be upheld by the court, it won't be mandatory for a company to enforce it unless a veteran insists on exercising his rights. In your case, the man won't be fired unless you demand your old job back.

Q—I applied for reinstatement in my old job a little more than two months after I got out of the service. Before I applied, however, I held another job which at the time seemed to have more future. Now my former employer tells me that I gave up any right to reinstatement by working for another company. Is that true?

A—No. As long as you apply for reinstatement within 90 days, and meet all other requirements, your pre-service employment is required to give you your old job.

Q—Does a vet who goes back to his old job have the same vacation rights he had before he was inducted?

A—Yes.

Father Of Quads, Divorced By U.S. Wife, Sends for Bride

PITTSBURGH, April 25 — Mrs. William Thompson, 27-year-old beauty operator, won a swift divorce today from the former AAF sergeant who fathered quadruplets by an English WAAF.

Judge Thomas M. Marshall issued the decree a short time after hearing Mrs. Thompson's story at a brief hearing.

Thompson, appearing excited and happy, later told newsmen she hoped to bring the English girl, Norah Carpenter, and their three surviving children to America as quickly as possible, perhaps by airliner.

Even Has Apartment

"I hope to marry her in Pittsburgh, but I am not sure where or when," he said. "I already have a four-room apartment promised me when I can get them here."

Thompson has sent the U. S. embassy in London a guarantee that he will support the family. He still has to send Mrs. Carpenter a copy of the divorce decree and a certificate of intention to marry her. She has to present these papers to the embassy in London for approval of her trip here.

Mrs. Thompson testified "the case's notoriety" had subjected her to "indignities." She said "curious" people embarrassed her, that she was "pointed out" on the street, spent "many a sleepless night," and lost 23 pounds.

The pretty brunette woman, modestly garbed in crepe and black, said she first received word of the case March 1, 1944, when a newspaperman telephoned from New York to say her husband, then an army air forces sergeant, was the father of quadruplets in England.

Judge Marshall congratulated Mrs. Thompson for charging indignities rather than "other grounds."

Miss Norah Carpenter, mother of the quads, has announced she would come to America with the three surviving and marry Thompson as soon as a divorce was granted.

When mail was first transported through the air there was no such thing as an airmail plane design. Commercial manufacturers now build ships designed especially for carrying mail.

Mrs. Thompson testified "the case's notoriety" had subjected her to "indignities." She said "curious" people embarrassed her, that she was "pointed out" on the street, spent "many a sleepless night," and lost 23 pounds.

The pretty brunette woman, modestly garbed in a black dress, said she first received word of the case March 1, 1944, when a newspaperman telephoned from New York to say her husband, then an army air forces sergeant, was the father of quadruplets in England.

Judge Marshall congratulated Mrs. Thompson for charging indignities rather than "other grounds."

Miss Norah Carpenter, mother of the quads, has announced she would come to America with the three surviving and marry Thompson as soon as a divorce was granted.

When mail was first transported through the air there was no such thing as an airmail plane design. Commercial manufacturers now build ships designed especially for carrying mail.
